

GCSE French

If you haven't already created an account on Quizlet (it's free), then please sign up to it. Then, log on and type in Milford Haven French into the search bar. Then, click on the GCSE folder, here you will find lots of different topics which you will need to revise ready for your listening and reading papers. Try as many topics as you want. There are a range of different activities on there. Make sure that you make a note of any difficult vocabulary so that you can come back to these words again. It is possible to print off a set of flashcards if you want to keep in your files.

2. Go on to GCSE Bitesize to practise some reading and listening questions. You can select either higher or foundation.

3. Copy and paste this link
