Dear Parent/ Carer

RE: Closure of Milford Haven School with effect from 3.10pm on Friday 20th March 2020

Following the recent statement from Kirsty Williams (Minister for Education in Wales) Milford Haven School have now been advised that the Easter holiday has been brought forward, to commence from 3.10pm on Friday 20th March 2020. This means that the school will definitely be closed for the next two weeks, however we do not know at present how long the school is to remain closed for. Please continue to monitor our school website, WEDUC and Facebook page for any updates during the school closure period.

We advise you all to continue to follow national guidance with regards to coronavirus, and should your children have any symptoms when the school reopens they should not return to school until well.

Please be reassured that the school has been following all the official guidance it has received. This has been a fast moving situation and we have had to respond rapidly to the updated advice given to us. Thank you to all parents and carers for their understanding through this difficult set of circumstances.
