

Friday March 20th 2020

Dear Parent/ Carer,

I would like to make you all aware that today we will be asking you to please let us know if you fall under the category of 'key worker', and will require access to a provision here at Milford Haven School over the coming two weeks.

Although we have yet to receive confirmation on the finer details and logistics of the setup, as of Monday 23rd 2020 Milford Haven School will be open to provide a safe and secure space for some pupils. In particular, we will be open for those children who have a parent who is an essential and key worker. In this national effort, key workers are defined as:

- Health workers – all employed in the NHS
- Education staff – teachers, TAs, and school support staff
- 'Blue Light' emergency service officers (police / fire / ambulance etc...)
- Prison officers and staff
- Social care workers
- Probation service staff
- Supermarket delivery drivers

If you work in one of the sectors stated above please follow the link below so we can accurately prepare resources and staffing required for the amount of children expected to attend.

In addition to the above, over the coming days we will be contacting families of children who are (in Government terms) defined as 'vulnerable'. As you can see we are trying to ensure that Milford Haven School continues to look after the community and all those that need us, now more than ever.

Thank you again for your patience and understanding, please stay safe and continue to look after each other.

TOGETHER ASPIRE, TOGETHER ACHIEVE.
