Dear Learner of Year 10,11,12 and 13

In these uncertain times it is important that we keep you up to date with any new developments.

Qualifications Wales (the Board that oversees all qualifications issued in this country) who produced the guidance that we shared with you, have opened a learner consultation. The following is a statement taken from their learner consultation document:

“This year is different from other years. Coronavirus has changed our lives. Schools are closed and exams are cancelled.

This affects lots of young people. You may have questions like:

- What happens next?
- How will my grades be decided?
- Will I be graded fairly?
- Will colleges, universities or employers trust my grades?

We are Qualifications Wales

Our role is to:

- decide which qualifications schools in Wales can offer
- make sure all qualifications meet your needs and the needs of Wales
- make sure the exams you take are fair and our qualification system can be trusted.

We know lots of young people are worried. But we are working with schools, colleges and the WJEC exam board to work out the best way forward so everybody gets the grades they deserve this summer.

We want to know what you think of our plans.”

Therefore Milford Haven School wishes to share the following links with you to the learner consultation document and online survey and would encourage you to fill in:

As shared with you previously the letter for learners from Qualifications Wales noted “ Your teachers will review all the work you have done, any new work set will not influence this summer’s results. Teachers may continue to set work to ensure that all teaching and learning has been completed and help prepare you for next year”.
