

Why do we have homework?

Milford Haven School places a strong emphasis upon the importance of homework throughout all years within the school. We see homework as an important part of your learning experience, that will enhance your attainment and aid your progression and development throughout your school life and into your career. For homework to be effective we wanted it to be more stimulating and challenging, as well as compliment the quality of the educational experience we provide to all involved within the school.

Your role:

- Recognise the value of homework and be fully aware of its capacity to improve learning.
- Use your planner to ensure that your workload is evenly spread.
- Be responsible for completing your homework to the best of your ability.
- Seek appropriate support to ensure that you are able to complete tasks set.
- Record all homework tasks in your pupil planner.
- When you complete your homework, make sure you show it to your House tutor and receive classchart points.

Your parents' role:

- Set a regular time every day for homework.
- Ensure your child has paper, books, pencils and other things needed to do the tasks.
- Provide a space in which your child can concentrate.
- Encourage any reading - menus, signposts, maps, newspapers, magazines and leaflets.
- Set a good example by reading and writing yourself.
- Encourage your child to take part in a wide range of activities, hobbies and clubs which will provide opportunities to develop a range of skills.
