

AQA City & Guilds	CCEA	OCR	Pearson	WJEC
-------------------	------	-----	---------	------	--

Information for candidates for written examinations – effective from 1 September 2020

This document has been written to help you. Read it carefully and follow the instructions. If there is anything you do not understand, especially which calculator you may use, ask your teacher.

A       Regulations – Make sure you understand the rules         1       Be on time for all your exams. If you are late, your work might not be accepted.         2       Do not become involved in any unfair or dishonest practice during the exam.         3       If you try to cheat, or break the rules in any way, you could be disqualified from all your subjects.         4       You must not take into the exam room:         a)       notes;         b)       potential technological/web enabled sources of information such as an iPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwatch or a wrist watch the vam room must be see-through.         Remember:       possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do r you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification.         5       If you wera wrist watch the invigilator values you rowore it and place it on your desk.         6       Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.         7       Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.         8       You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.         9       If you arrive into anything from another candidate during the exam.         8       Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need         1       Now the dates and times of all your exams and any other equipment which you use <ul> <li>Do not become involved in any unfair or dishonest practice during the exam.</li> <li>If you try to cheat, or break the rules in any way, you could be disgualified from all your subjects.</li> <li>You must not take into the exam room:         <ul> <li>a) notes;</li> <li>b) potential technological/web enabled sources of information such as an iPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwatch or a wrist watch which has a data storage device. Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do n you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification.</li> <li>If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.</li> <li>Do not take correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.</li> <li>Do not take to rule inappropriate, obscene or offensive merove it and place it on your desk.</li> <li>You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.</li> <li>If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has started.</li> <li>Morow the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each estimate in the your after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need</li> <li>You must write clearly and in black ink.</li> <li>Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.</li> <li>If you arive a calculator:             <ul> <li>a) make sure it works properity; check that the batteries are working properly;</li> <li>b) clear anything stored in it;</li> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases,</li></ul></li></ul>
3         If you try to cheat, or break the rules in any way, you could be disgualified from all your subjects.           4         You must not take into the exam room:           a) notes;         b) potential technological/web enabled sources of information such as an iPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwatch or a wrist watch which has a data storage der Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through.           Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do n you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification.           5         If you war a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.           6         Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, hiphlighters or gel pens in your answers.           7         Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.           8         You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.           9         If you are a ward the our accompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you wito Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.           8         Information - Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need           1         Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each of If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a dould be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.           2 <td></td>
<ul> <li>You must not take into the exam room:         <ul> <li>a) notes;</li> <li>b) potential technological/web enabled sources of information such as an iPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwatch or a wrist watch which has a data storage der Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through.</li> <li>Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do n you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification.</li> </ul> </li> <li>If you wera wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.</li> <li>Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.</li> <li>Do not tak to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.</li> <li>You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.</li> <li>If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.</li> <li>B Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need</li> <li>Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each e if you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam.</li> <li>If you mast write clearly and in black ink.</li> <li>Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>Make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;</li> <li>cha anything stored in it;</li> <ul> <li>You may we a calculator unless</li></ul></ul>
<ul> <li>b) potential technological/web enabled sources of information such as an iPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwatch or a wrist watch which has a data storage der Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through.</li> <li>Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do r you will be subject to penalty and possible disgualification.</li> <li>If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.</li> <li>Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.</li> <li>Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.</li> <li>You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.</li> <li>If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will bo not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.</li> <li>B Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need</li> <li>Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each e</li> <li>If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam.</li> <li>If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a</li> <li>Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need</li> <li>You may use ta calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you arrive aclculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you aray calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a calculator at case is, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.</li> <li>Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If the invigilator at once if: <ul> <li>a) wake sure it works properly; check that the batteries a</li></ul></li></ul>
<ul> <li>b) potential technological/web enabled sources of information such as an IPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwatch or a wrist watch which has a data storage der Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through.</li> <li>Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do n you will be subject to penalty and possible disgualification.</li> <li>If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.</li> <li>Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.</li> <li>Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.</li> <li>You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.</li> <li>If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will bo not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.</li> <li>B Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need</li> <li>Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each e</li> <li>If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam.</li> <li>If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a</li> <li>Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need</li> <li>You must write clearly and in black ink.</li> <li>Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.</li> <li>If you arrive acludator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a valculator at once if:         <ul> <li>a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;</li> <li>b) che ar anything</li></ul></li></ul>
<ul> <li>a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwatch or a wrist watch which has a data storage det Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through.</li> <li>Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do n you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification.</li> <li>If you wera a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.</li> <li>Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.</li> <li>Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.</li> <li>You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.</li> <li>If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.</li> <li>Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need</li> <li>Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each e</li> <li>If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam.</li> <li>If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a</li> <li>Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need</li> <li>You must write clearly and in black ink.</li> <li>Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.</li> <li>If you are a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you are a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you are a works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;</li> <li>clear anything stored in it;</li> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;</li> <li>do not bring into the exam room any operati</li></ul>
Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through.         Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do nous correcting pens, fluid or tage, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.         5       If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.         6       Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tage, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.         7       Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.         8       You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.         9       If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you with the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each eta if you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a         4       Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need         5       You must write clearly and in black ink.         Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.         2       If you aray use a calculator:         3       make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it;         5       You must write works properly; check that the batteries are working programs.         3       Do not use a Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do noused of the subject to penalty and possible disqualification.           5         If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.           6         Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tage, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.           7         Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.           8         You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.           9         If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will 0           10         Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.           8         Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need           1         Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each each only take into the exam, report to the invigilator running the exam.           3         If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a only take into the elariy and in black ink.           Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.           2         If you use a calculator:           3         make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it;           4         You may us	ot intend to use it, and you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification.           5         If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.           6         Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tage, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.           7         Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.           8         You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.           9         If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will           10         Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.           8         Information – Make sure you attend your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each eta to one than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need You must write clearly and in black ink.           Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.           2         If you use a calculator:           3         make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;           b         clear anything stored in it;           clour any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;           d)	ot intend to use it, and you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification.           5         If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.           6         Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tage, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.           7         Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.           8         You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.           9         If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will           10         Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.           8         Information – Make sure you attend your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each eta to one than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need You must write clearly and in black ink.           Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.           2         If you use a calculator:           3         make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;           b         clear anything stored in it;           clour any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;           d)
5       If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.         6       Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.         7       Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.         8       You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.         9       If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you with 0         10       Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.         8       Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need         1       Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each e         2       If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a         4       Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need         5       You may use ricticonaries and computer spell-checkers         1       You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         2       If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         3       Do not use a dictionary or computer spell-checkers         1       You may use a calculator:         2       If you use a calculator:         3       make sure it works properly; ch
<ul> <li>6 Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.</li> <li>7 Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.</li> <li>8 You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.</li> <li>9 If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you with</li> <li>10 Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.</li> <li>8 Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need</li> <li>11 Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each of</li> <li>2 If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a</li> <li>4 Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need</li> <li>5 You must write clearly and in black ink.</li> <li>Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.</li> <li>2 If you may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>2 If you use a calculator in list.</li> <li>c Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers</li> <li>1 You may use a calculator in it;</li> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;</li> <li>d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions.</li> <li>2 Tell the invigilator at once if:</li> <li>a) you think you have not bein given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on th</li> <li>b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> <li>3 Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bocd</li> <li>4 When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the not of the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> <li>3</li></ul>
7       Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.         8       You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.         9       If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will         10       Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.         8       Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need         1       Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each e         2       If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a         4       Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need         5       You must write clearly and in black ink.         Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.         2       If you are a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         3       If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         2       If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         3       Do not use a dictionary or computer spell-checkers         1       You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         2       If you sure as my now as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the ex <ul> <li>You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.</li> <li>If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will be not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.</li> <li>B Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need</li> <li>Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each edition of you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam.</li> <li>If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need</li> <li>You must write clearly and in black ink.</li> <li>Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.</li> <li>C Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers</li> <li>You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a calculator:         <ul> <li>a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;</li> <li>b) clear anything stored in it;</li> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;</li> <li>d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Tell the invigilator at once if:         <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the fort of the question paper and/or on the answer bocket.</li> <li>G) you think you have not been given the right question paper and/or on the answer bocklet.</li> <li>d) byou rough work on the proper exam stationery</li></ul>
<ul> <li>9 If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will</li> <li>Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.</li> <li>B Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need</li> <li>Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each each each each each each each each</li></ul>
<ul> <li>Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.</li> <li>Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need</li> <li>Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each ed</li> <li>If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam.</li> <li>If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a</li> <li>Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need</li> <li>You must write clearly and in black ink.</li> <li>Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.</li> <li>C Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers</li> <li>You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a calculator:         <ul> <li>a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;</li> <li>b) clear anything stored in it;</li> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;</li> <li>d) do not bring into the exam</li> </ul> </li> <li>Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>Instructions during the exam</li> <li>Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.</li> <li>Tell the invigilator at once if:         <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper and/or on the answer book</li> <li>When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or on the answer book</li> <li>When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the from of the question paper and/or before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answe</li></ul></li></ul>	Il not be allowed to return
B         Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need           1         Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least term minutes before the start of each e           2         If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam.           3         If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a           4         Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need           5         You must write clearly and in black ink.           Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.           2         If you ary use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.           1         You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.           2         If you use a calculator:           a)         make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;           b)         clear anything stored in it;           c)         remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;           d)         do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.           3         Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.           1         Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.
1       Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each ed         2       If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam.         3       If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a         4       Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need         5       You must write clearly and in black ink.         Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.         2       If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         2       If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         2       If you use a calculator in it;         3       nake sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;         b       clear anything stored in it;         c)       remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;         d)       do not bring into the exam         1       Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.         2       Tell the invigilator at once if:         a)       you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b)         b)       the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.         3 </th <th></th>
<ul> <li>If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam.</li> <li>If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a</li> <li>Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need</li> <li>You must write clearly and in black ink.</li> <li>Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.</li> <li>Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers</li> <li>You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a calculator in it;</li> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;</li> <li>d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.</li> <li>Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>Instructions during the exam</li> <li>Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.</li> <li>Tell the invigilator at once if:         <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> <li>Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the front of the question paper and/or on the answer bock</li> <li>When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or on the answer sheets that 5</li> <li>Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer bocklet.</li> <li>Do you rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you addy our candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough</li> <li>Advice and as</li></ul></li></ul>	xam.
<ul> <li>If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be a</li> <li>Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need</li> <li>You must write clearly and in black ink.</li> <li>Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.</li> <li>Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers</li> <li>You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a calculator:         <ul> <li>a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;</li> <li>b) clear anything stored in it;</li> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;</li> <li>d) onot bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>Instructions during the exam</li> <li>Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.</li> <li>Tell the invigilator at once if:         <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper and/or on the answer book</li> <li>4</li> <li>When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets tha</li> </ul> </li> <li>S Reemember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.</li> <li>6 Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough 'E Advice and assistance</li> <li>If on the day of the exam you feel that your work m</li></ul>
<ul> <li>Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need</li> <li>You must write clearly and in black ink.</li> <li>Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.</li> <li>Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers</li> <li>You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a calculator:         <ul> <li>a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;</li> <li>b) clear anything stored in it;</li> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;</li> <li>d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>D Instructions during the exam</li> <li>Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.</li> <li>Tell the invigilator at once if:         <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper and/or on the answer book</li> <li>When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets tha</li> <li>Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you additional answer sheets that you use for rough</li> <li>Advice and assistance</li> <li>If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	llowed to take it
<ul> <li>You must write clearly and in black ink.</li> <li>Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.</li> <li>Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers</li> <li>You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>If you use a calculator: <ul> <li>a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;</li> <li>b) clear anything stored in it;</li> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;</li> <li>d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>D Instructions during the exam</li> <li>Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.</li> <li>Tell the invigilator at once if: <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the front of the question paper and/or on the answer book 4</li> <li>When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets tha 5</li> <li>Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.</li> <li>Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough the section paper and and the or any other reaso</li> </ul> Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions question paper state otherwise.         C       Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers         1       You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         2       If you use a calculator:         a)       make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;         b)       clear anything stored in it;         c)       remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;         d)       do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.         3       Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.         9       Instructions during the exam         1       Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.         2       Tell the invigilator at once if:         a)       you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b)         b)       the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.         3       Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood         4       When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets tha <td< td=""><td></td></td<> question paper state otherwise.         C       Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers         1       You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         2       If you use a calculator:         a)       make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;         b)       clear anything stored in it;         c)       remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;         d)       do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.         3       Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.         D       Instructions during the exam         1       Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.         2       Tell the invigilator at once if:         a)       you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b)         the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.         3       Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood         4       When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or boy or user whether the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets tha         5       Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. </td <td>printed on the front of the</td>	printed on the front of the C       Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers         1       You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         2       If you use a calculator:         a)       make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;         b)       clear anything stored in it;         c)       remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;         d)       do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.         3       Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.         D       Instructions during the exam         1       Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.         2       Tell the invigilator at once if:         a)       you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b)         the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.         3       Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood         4       When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets tha         5       Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.         6       Do your rough work on the pro	printed on the none of the 1       You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.         2       If you use a calculator:         a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;         b) clear anything stored in it;         c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;         d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.         3       Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.         D       Instructions during the exam         1       Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.         2       Tell the invigilator at once if:         a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the         b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.         3       Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the front of the question paper and/or on the answer boc         4       When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets tha         5       Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.         6       Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answer Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough to 2       If you use a calculator:         a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;         b) clear anything stored in it;         c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;         d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.         3       Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.         D       Instructions during the exam         1       Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.         2       Tell the invigilator at once if:         a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the         b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.         3       Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood         4       When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that         5       Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.         6       Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough the assistance         1       If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be <ul> <li>a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;</li> <li>b) clear anything stored in it;</li> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;</li> <li>d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.</li> <li>3 Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>D Instructions during the exam</li> <li>Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.</li> <li>Tell the invigilator at once if:         <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood</li> <li>When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/o before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that so your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough the sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough the sure you fill the aspected by ill health or any other reaso</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>b) clear anything stored in it;</li> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;</li> <li>d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.</li> <li>3 Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>D Instructions during the exam</li> <li>1 Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.</li> <li>2 Tell the invigilator at once if: <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> </ul> </li> <li>3 Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer book 4 When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that 5 Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.</li> <li>6 Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough Te Advice and assistance</li> <li>1 If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;</li> <li>d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.</li> <li>3 Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>D Instructions during the exam</li> <li>Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.</li> <li>2 Tell the invigilator at once if:         <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> </ul> </li> <li>3 Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that 5 Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.</li> <li>6 Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough to any other reaso</li> <li>1 If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.</li> <li>3 Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.</li> <li>D Instructions during the exam</li> <li>1 Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.</li> <li>2 Tell the invigilator at once if:         <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> </ul> </li> <li>3 Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood 4 When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that 5 Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.</li> <li>6 Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough the sum you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso</li> </ul>
3       Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.         D       Instructions during the exam         1       Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.         2       Tell the invigilator at once if: <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> </ul> 3       Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood the before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that so you rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answer Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough the sum you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso
D       Instructions during the exam         1       Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.         2       Tell the invigilator at once if: <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> </ul> 3       Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood         4       When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that         5       Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.         6       Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough         E       Advice and assistance         1       If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso
1       Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.         2       Tell the invigilator at once if:         a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.         3       Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that before you rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answer Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough the state of the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso <ul> <li>Tell the invigilator at once if:         <ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood 4 When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that</li> <li>Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.</li> <li>Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answake sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough the advice and assistance</li> <li>If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> <li>3 Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood</li> <li>4 When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that</li> <li>5 Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.</li> <li>6 Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers wake sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough the the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.</li> <li>3 Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood</li> <li>4 When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets tha</li> <li>5 Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.</li> <li>6 Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers water you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough the the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso</li> </ul>	a frant of the nener
<ul> <li>Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer bood</li> <li>When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that</li> <li>Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.</li> <li>Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers water you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough</li> <li>Advice and assistance</li> <li>If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso</li> </ul>	e front of the paper;
<ul> <li>When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that</li> <li>Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.</li> <li>Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers wake sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough</li> <li>Advice and assistance</li> <li>If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso</li> </ul>	klot before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that         Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.         Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers within the details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough         E       Advice and assistance         1       If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso
5       Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.         6       Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough         E       Advice and assistance         1       If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso
<ul> <li>Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your ans Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough Advice and assistance</li> <li>If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso</li> </ul>
Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough         E       Advice and assistance         1       If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso	wers
E         Advice and assistance           1         If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso
1 If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reaso
	a tell the invigilator
2 Put up your hand during the exam if:
<ul><li>a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do;</li><li>b) you do not feel well;</li></ul>
<ul> <li>You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions.</li> <li>At the end of the exam</li> </ul>
	hom in the correct order
1 If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place t	nem in the correct order.
Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet.
Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use.
2 Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator.
3 Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer bookle	te constant and a second se
work or any other materials provided for the exam.	ts used or unused, rough