National Period of Mourning

Following the sad and sudden news of the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II on 8th September 2022, I wanted to share with you the ways in which we have marked the Queen's passing and deliver an update on the latest news following the announcement of the Queen's funeral.

Pupils and staff at Milford Haven School held a two minute silence on Friday 9th September at 12 noon as a mark of respect and pupils were given time to reflect on her remarkable life and service and remember fondly all of the wonderful celebrations they participated in for her Platinum Jubilee earlier this year.

There will be a book of remembrance available in the school library should any pupils wish to leave a message of condolence. I would like to extend a thanks to all pupils for the respect, thoughtfulness and empathy shown during this national period of mourning.

Due to the high level of media coverage, you may have already seen that the day of the Queen's funeral will be marked as a national Bank Holiday and will take place on Monday 19th September 2022.

In order to give pupils and staff the opportunity to mark this day of historical significance, Milford Haven School will be closed and will reopen on Tuesday 20th September 2022.

Yours faithfully / Gyda diolch
